

JOB TITLE SUBWAY BUSINESS/FIELD CONSULTANT

JOB SUMMARY

The role of a Subway Field Consultant will require the successful candidate to provide operational support to Subway restaurants in Trinidad & Tobago and franchisee support in specific Caribbean islands. This will include assisting with franchise sales and restaurant development, franchisee support and staff training, analysis of new business opportunities, restaurant evaluations and the provision of general operational guidance and support to store operators.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- To utilize knowledge in promoting and developing the culture, values and mission of the organization
- To thoroughly and accurately complete monthly store evaluations and weekly updates as per prescribed guidelines
- To enforce prescribed high standards in all areas of restaurant operations including food quality, customer service, restaurant and equipment maintenance and store advertising
- To contribute to the opening of new stores and conducts training as per prescribed guidelines
- To support and guide franchisees to optimize sales and profitability, to assists with achieving operational goals and to provide corrective feedback as necessary
- To assists the Development Agent and Subway International to achieve the development objectives for the region

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- A Bachelor's Degree in Business Management or a related discipline
- 2-5 years working experience in a quick service restaurant environment
- The ability to think logically and negotiate effectively at a senior level
- A willingness to travel 1-3 weeks per month as foreign development and international commitments dictate
- Knowledge of French
- Well developed computer skills and proficiency with commonly used business software packages
- Must possess qualities of self motivation and the ability to multi-task effectively
- The ability and the willingness to operate in a dynamic and fast paced team oriented environment
- Strong analytical, time management, written, verbal and organizational skills

We offer an attractive remuneration package, commensurate with the qualifications and experience of the applicant. This package will reflect the successful applicant's status as an important part of the world's most vibrant, dynamic and fastest growing restaurant brand.